

Stained Glass Unicursals

by Peter Grabarchuk

These are six different stained glass square windows (A-F). Only one of them can be drawn without taking your pencil off the paper or going along the same line twice. Which one is it?

More from the author at PeterPuzzle.com.